

Hello someone.

This is a list of the music that emerges from my brain. I've always loved electronic music, since the days of Tangerine Dream and Kraftwerk, other early German pioneers. I have been dabbling with music synthesis since I bought my Commodore-64.

I'm not the least bit musically trained as you will soon gather. But, nonetheless, it is my contribution to the cacophony of the internet.

The list evolves over time as I keep adding more stuff.
